Numb. 1831

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 4. to Thursday June 7. 1683.

Constantinople, April 13.

THe Grand Signior parted from Adrianople the first of this Month, intending to make his Journey from thence to Belgrade in 40 days. The Aga of the Janizaries begun his March some days before, and took with him the Count de Caprara, the Imperial Minister, whom they continue to Guard very strictly. The Deputies of Argiers are still here; they were sent hither to pray the assistance of the Port against the French, but we do not hear they have obtained any.

Madrid, May 27. The King of Spain is perfectly recovered of his late illness, and the 21 his Majesty appeared in publick, and received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and other principal Persons of the Court, and on the second of the next Month a great Bull Feast is appointed, to express a publick Joy for his Majesties recovery. The Queen-Mother, who came hither from Buen Retiro upon the first Notice she had of his Majesties Indisposition, continues still here. The King has made the Prince of Montesarchio Captain General of the Forces of Castile, the Marquis de la Grania, General of the Gallies of Naples, Don Beltran de Guevara, General of the Galleys of Sicily, and Don Inigo de Toledo General of those of Sardaigna. The Count d'Aquilar, General of the Armada, and the Count de Herman, Nunez General of the Artillery of the Fleet, are both parted from hence in great diligence for Cadiz, to hasten the Equipage.

Genoua, June 2. This Week Sailed from hence the Loyal Goring and the Merchants Delight for Legborn and the Levant: and the Sarah and Elizabeth for Cadiz, and two days agone arrived the Britain in 24 days from Majorca, having ten days since met with the French Fleet, consisting of 32 Ships, great and small, (the Galleys not being with them) bound for Argiers: The Weather seems favourable, so that there is great expectation of what they will do there.

Copenhagen, May 26. The King of Denmark, as we are told, will part from hence the beginning of the next Month for Holstein, and the general Rendezvous of his Army will be held the 15th on the Creperheyde. The Danish Fleet will be ready to Sail very suddenly.

Vienna, May 30. The Imperial Army Decamped the 25th Instant, the Duke of Lorrain intending to march to Gran in two days, and to set down before that place, which, as some Letters say, they would begin to Batter this day; It is reported, that there are 8000 Men in Garison; That the Turks have burnt the Suburbs, and are preparing for a resolute defence, which, if it be true, will, as many believe, change the Duke of Lorrain's design, that he may not engage his Army in a difficult Siege at the opening of the Campagne. We have advice, That 800 Turkish Horse having advanced very near the Imperial Army, to learn what News they could of it, the Duke of Lorrain, upon notice thereof, sent out a Party, who charged the Turks, Roured them, and took several of them Prisoners. We have not as yet any certain account whether the Grand Vizier is marched with the main Body of the Ottoman Army from Belgrade, but it is confidently reported, That he has detached 20 or 30000 Men to joyn the Troops under the Command of the Vizier of Buda. In the mean time the Imperial Army is daily reinforced, and the Duke of Croy will in few days joyn it with 2000 Foot which he has newly raised. Count Teckeley does as yet keep the Truce; he assembles his Troops together near Tockay, and as we are told refuses to joyn with the Turks, who have sent him several Summons for that purpose, which makes us hope he has a mind to make his Peace with the Emperor. By an Express arrived yesterday from Poland we have advice, That the Prince of Lubomirski was on his March to joyn the Imperial Troops commanded by Major General Schutz; That the King of Poland is hastening his Preparations for the Campagne, and that he will be in the Field before the end of the next Month, with 24000 Men. Several Sums of Money have been sent from hence to the Viceroy of Croatia, to enable him to bring the Troops he is raising into the Field. The Elector of Bavaria parted from hence the 28th Instant, on his return home, having been the day before privately at Luxemburg, to take his leave of the Emperor. His Electoral Highness is to command in chief the Army of the Empire designed for the Guard of the Rhine.

Strasburg, June 4. Several Troops that were in Garison here, to the number of 5000 Men, are marched to the Camp at Landaw, whither the Baron de Monclar, the Kings Lieutenant-General in Alsace, parted yesterday from hence. We work here with great Diligence on the Fortifications, being desirous to have them finished against the King arrives in these parts.

Cologne, June 8. The Commonalty continues in Arms, and one Gulich, a man of a turbulent Spirit, pretends to be their Chief, and to order all things in their name; he gives Audiences, and examines the Consuls, Sindics, and other Officers of the City (whom he obliges to stand bear headed before him;) concerning several Facts which they are charged with, and what the issue of this popular Commotion may be, none can say. The Deputies of the Elector of Trier and the Duke of Neubourg, who came hither by the Emperors appointment to endeavour an accommodation between the Magistrates and the Burghers, seeing no likelihood of their performing their Commission in the confusion things are at present in, are gone home again. The Bishop of Strasburg, who it was believed